 1. Any increase in the issued share capital of the Company shall be decided upon by an Ordinary Resolution but this notwithstanding, the Company may by Ordinary Resolution authorise the Directors to issue shares up to the amount specified as the authorised share capital of the Company, which authorisation shall be for a maximum period of five (5) years and is renewable for further periods of five (5) years each.

Share Certificates

If a Member shall require additional certificates he shall pay for each additional certificate such reasonable sum (if any) as the Directors may determine.
9. In respect of shares of one (1) class held jointly by more than one (1) person, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than one (1) certificate and delivery of the certificate for such shares to the person nominated by the joint Shareholders or in his absence to the person first named on the Register in respect of such shares shall be deemed sufficient delivery to all such holders.
10. If any certificate be worn out or defaced then upon delivery thereof to the Directors they may order the same to be cancelled and may issue a new certificate in lieu thereof; and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Directors and on such indemnity (if any) as the Directors deem adequate being given a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to such lost or destroyed certificate.
 1. Every certificate issued under the last preceding Article shall, without prejudice to any indemnity that the Directors deem adequate in the case of a certificate that is lost or destroyed, be issued without payment, but there shall be paid to the Company any expenses of the Company in connection with the request as the Directors think fit.

Purchase By Company Of Its Equity Securities

12. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may purchase its own Equity Securities.

Variation Of Rights

13. If at any time, the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the change of any shares from one class into another or the variation of the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class which is to be changed or the rights attached to which are to be varied, according to the case) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be made with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, and the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of any other class affected thereby. Such change or variation may also be made with the sanction of an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class and of an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a separate General Meeting of the holders of the issued shares of any other class affected thereby. To every such separate General Meeting the provisions of these Articles relating to General Meetings shall apply.

14. The rights attached to any class of shares shall (unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class or by the terms upon which such shares are for the time being held) be deemed not to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

Calls On Shares

15. The Directors may, subject to the terms of allotment thereof, from time to time make calls upon the Members as they think fit in respect of any monies unpaid (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) provided that no call shall be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed, in whole or in part, as the Directors may determine.
16. A call may be made payable by instalments.
17. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
18. If a sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum at such rate not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as the Directors may determine, from the day appointed for the payment thereof until the actual payment thereof and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment; but the Directors may, if they shall think fit, waive the payment of such interest and expenses or any part thereof.
19. During such time as any part of the call or instalment together with interests and expenses remains unpaid, the entitlement of the person from whom the sum is due to the rights and advantages conferred by Membership of the Company including the right to receive dividends and the right to attend and vote at Meetings of the Company, shall be suspended.
20. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
21. The Directors may, on the issue of shares, make arrangements for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amounts of calls to be paid and in the times of payment of such calls.
22. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same all or any part of the monies, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium, uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and upon all or any of the monies so paid in advance the Directors may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying such monies in advance. The Directors may at any time on giving not less than three months' notice in writing to such Member repay to him the amount by which any such advance exceeds the amount actually called upon the shares.

Forfeiture

23. If any Member fails to pay any call or instalment in full on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring him to pay so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
24. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which and the place where such call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

25. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall extend to all dividends declared in respect of the shares so forfeited and not actually paid before such forfeiture. Forfeiture shall be deemed to occur at the time of the passing of the said resolution of the Directors. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder.
26. When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served upon the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share, or the person entitled to the share by transmission, and an entry of the forfeiture or surrender, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any failure to give such notice or make such entry as aforesaid.
27. A share so forfeited or surrendered shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of in such manner, either subject to or discharged from all calls made or instalments due prior to the forfeiture or surrender, as the Directors think fit.

PROVIDED that the Company shall not exercise any voting rights in respect of such share. For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale or other disposition the Directors may authorise some person to transfer the share so sold or otherwise disposed of to the purchaser thereof or other person becoming entitled thereto.

28. The Directors may, at any time before any share so forfeited or surrendered shall have been sold, reallocated or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture or surrender upon such terms as they think fit.
29. Any person whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a Member in respect of those shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, at the date of the forfeiture or surrender, were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, together with interest thereon at such rate, not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as the Directors may determine, from the time of forfeiture or surrender until the time of payment, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares, together with interest as aforesaid. The Directors may, if they shall think fit, waive the payment of such interest or any part thereof.

Transfer Of Shares

30. Subject to the provisions of the law and of these Articles the Equity Securities of the Company are freely transferable provided that in no case may a part of a share constitute the object of a transfer.
31. All transfers of Listed Shares shall be unrestricted and shall be regulated by law, Articles 32 to 36 of these Articles shall only be applicable to unlisted Equity Securities.
32. 1. All transfers of shares (other than transfers of Listed Shares) shall be effected by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Directors may approve or in electronic form where allowed by law. Listed Shares shall be transferred in the manner regulating such shares.
2. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
33. The Directors may in their absolute discretion without assigning any reason therefor, refuse to register any transfer of any share which is not a fully paid share.
34. The Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer and refuse to register such transfer if:
1. the instrument of transfer is not duly stamped and/or is not left at the Office or at such other place as the Directors may from time to time determine, to be registered and/or is not accompanied by the certificates of the shares to which it relates and such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do); or

2. the instrument of transfer is not in respect of only one class of shares; or
 3. the instrument of transfer is in respect of shares pledged to another person under a pledge agreement duly notified to the Company.
35. If the Directors refuse to register a transfer they shall within two (2) months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company send to the transferee notice of the refusal and (except in the case of fraud) return to him the instrument of transfer. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the Company.
36. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine and either generally or in respect of any class of shares:

PROVIDED always that such registration shall not be suspended, either generally or otherwise, for more than thirty (30) days in any year.

Transmission Of Shares

37. All transmission of Listed Shares shall be regulated by law and by the bye-laws of the Exchange and the Listing Rules which relate to such transmission and accordingly Articles 38 and 39 of these Articles shall be applicable to such transmission only in so far as the said Articles are not inconsistent therewith.
38. 1. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Member before his death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.
2. If the person becoming entitled to a share in terms of Article 38.1 shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. Should there be more than one person entitled to such share or shares, the persons concerned may elect and nominate one of their number as their representative and his name will be entered in the Register with such designation. Such person shall for all intents and purposes be deemed vis-à-vis the Company to be the registered holder of the shares so held.
3. If the person becoming entitled to a share in terms of Article 38.1 shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the share. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that Member.
39. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall, upon supplying to the Company such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require to show his title to the share, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by Membership in relation to Meetings of the Company:

PROVIDED always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Joint Or Nominee Ownership Of Shares

40. 1. In respect of shares held jointly by several persons, the joint holders may elect and nominate one of their number as their representative and his name will be entered in the Register with such designation. Such person shall for all intents and purposes be deemed vis-à-vis the Company to be the registered holder of the shares so held. In the absence of such nomination and until such nomination is made, the person first named on the Register in respect of such shares shall, for all intents and purposes be deemed vis-à-vis the Company to be the registered holder of the shares so held.

2. The Company shall not be bound by or required to recognise, even when having notice thereof, any trust, nominee, equitable, contingent, future or particular representative interest, in any Equity Security, other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder. The indication by a registered holder that he holds any Equity Security in any such capacity shall not be regarded as a recognition by the Company of any such underlying interests.

Shares Held Subject To Usufruct

41. In respect of shares held subject to usufruct, the names of the bare owner and the usufructuary shall, after due verification by the Company Secretary, be entered in the Register. The usufructuary shall for all intents and purposes be deemed vis-à-vis the Company to be the registered holder of the shares so held and shall be entitled to all the rights and advantages conferred by Membership of the Company including the right to receive dividends and to attend and vote at Meetings of the Company but shall not have the right to dispose of the shares so held without the consent of the bare owner. If there is more than one usufructuary the provisions of Article 40 of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply.

Conversion Of Shares Into Stock

42. Subject to the provisions of the law (particularly in respect of Listed Shares) the Company may by Ordinary Resolution convert any of its fully paid up shares into stock of the same class as the shares so converted, and reconvert such stock into fully paid up shares of the same class and of any denomination provided that in the case of Listed Shares it shall comply with the Bye-Laws of the Exchange and the Listing Rules in making any such conversion or reconversion.
43. The several holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; and the Directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable but so that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
44. The several holders of such stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them and the class thereof, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at Meetings of the Company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on a reduction of capital or a winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
45. Such of the provisions of these Articles as are applicable to fully paid up shares shall apply to stock, and the words “share” and “shareholder” therein shall include “stock” and “stockholder”.

Alteration Of Capital

It shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, to such persons as are, under these Articles, entitled to receive such notices from the Company. The notice shall also contain the following information:
 - a. a clear and precise description of the procedures that Shareholders must comply with in order to be able to participate in and to vote at the General Meeting;
 - b. state the record date and explain that only those who are Shareholders on that date shall have the right to participate and vote in the General Meeting;
 - c. indicate where and how the full, unabridged text of the documents to be submitted to the General Meeting (including, where applicable, the Annual Report) and of any draft resolutions may be obtained, unless in the latter case the draft resolutions are included as part of the notice itself; and
 - d. indicate the address of the internet site on which the information will be made available.
3. A notice calling an Annual General Meeting shall specify the Meeting as such and a notice convening a Meeting to pass an Extraordinary Resolution as the case may be shall specify the intention to propose the resolution as such.
4. In every notice calling a Meeting there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one proxy to attend and to vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a Member and such statement shall comply with the provisions of the Act as to informing Members of their right to appoint proxies.
5. A notice of a General Meeting called to consider extraordinary business shall be accompanied by a statement regarding the effect and scope of any proposed resolution in respect of such extraordinary business.
6. Any Member or Members holding in aggregate not less than five per cent (5%) of the voting issued share capital of the Company may:

Furthermore, where the right to request items to be put on the agenda of the General Meeting or to table draft resolutions to be adopted at the General Meeting requires a modification of the agenda for the General Meeting that has already been communicated to Shareholders, there shall be made available a revised agenda in the same manner as the previous agenda in advance of the applicable record date or, if no such record date applies, sufficiently in advance of the date of the General Meeting so as to enable other Shareholders to appoint a Proxy or, where applicable, to vote by correspondence.

7. If the Directors determine that the General Meeting is to be held by means of an Electronic Facility, whether in whole or in part: the notice convening the meeting shall:
 - a. specify the means, or the different means of attendance and participation at the meeting and any access, identification and security arrangements determined in accordance with Article 56.2; and
 - b. contain an invitation to Members to ask questions, and Members shall be allowed to submit such questions in writing up to forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting.

54. A Meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in the last preceding Article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat.
55. The accidental omission to give notice of a Meeting or (in cases where instruments of proxy are sent out with the notice) the accidental omission to send such instrument of proxy to, or the non-receipt of notice of a Meeting or such instrument of proxy by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that Meeting.

Attendance And Participation By Electronic Facilities

56. 1. The Directors may, whenever they think fit, resolve to enable persons entitled to attend and participate in a General Meeting to do so, in whole or in part, by attendance and participation by means of an Electronic Facility, and shall determine the means of attendance and participation to be used in relation to the General Meeting. Members present in person or by proxy by means of an Electronic Facility (as so determined by the Directors) shall be counted in a quorum and shall be entitled to participate at the General Meeting. The General Meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the Chairman is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the General Meeting to ensure that Members attending the General Meeting by all means (including by means of an Electronic Facility) are able to:
- i. participate in the business for which the General Meeting has been convened;
 - ii. hear all persons who speak at the General Meeting; and
 - iii. be heard by all other persons attending and participating at the General Meeting.
2. Where a General Meeting is held by means of an Electronic Facility, whether in whole or in part:
- a. the Board shall make the necessary arrangements and impose any requirement or restriction that is necessary to ensure the identification of those taking part by way of such Electronic Facility and the security of the electronic communication, as in its view is proportionate to the achievement of those objectives;
 - b. the Board shall determine and authorise the use of any voting application, system or facility it considers appropriate for the purposes of the General Meeting and where votes are cast electronically, Listing Rules 12.21, 12.22 12.23, 12.23A, 12.23B and 12.23C shall apply; and
 - c. sufficient time must be allowed for shareholders to ask questions which are pertinent and related to the items on the agenda of the meeting in advance, whether by electronic means or by letter addressed to the company and such questions will be answered by the directors or by such person as the directors may delegate for that purpose.
3. Members present in person or by proxy by means of an Electronic Facility shall be deemed to be present at that meeting for all purposes of the Act and these Articles, and “attend”, “participate”, “attending”, “participating”, “attendance” and “participation” shall be construed accordingly PROVIDED that when attendance and participation is to be by means of an Electronic Facility, Members wishing to appoint a proxy shall (i) only appoint the Chairman of the meeting or a another Member as their proxy and (ii) may indicate on the form of proxy how such proxy is to vote on each resolution put to the meeting.

Proceedings At General Meetings

57. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting, and also all that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of declaring a dividend, the consideration of the balance sheets and profit and loss account and the reports of the Directors and Auditors and any other documents required by law to be attached or annexed thereto, the election of Directors, and the appointment of and the fixing of the remuneration of, the Auditors. The appointment of a Chairman of a Meeting in accordance with the provisions of these Articles shall not be treated as part of the business of the Meeting.
58. 1. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the Meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided a Member or Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote and holding in the aggregate not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the total voting rights of the Members having the right to vote shall be a quorum.

2. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the Meeting a quorum be not present, the Meeting, if convened by or upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, the Meeting may, if it had been duly convened in terms of the Listing Rules, be adjourned to such time (being not less than fourteen days nor more than twenty-eight days thence) and place and with such means of attendance and participation (including by means of Electronic Facility) as the Chairman shall appoint. No new item shall be put on the agenda of an adjourned meeting. If at such adjourned Meeting a quorum be not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed therefor, Members present in person or by proxy not being less than two present in person and entitled to vote shall form a quorum. The Company shall give not less than ten (10) clear days' notice of any Meeting adjourned for want of a quorum and the notice shall state that Members present as aforesaid shall form a quorum.
59. The Chairman of the Board, or in his absence the Vice Chairman, shall preside as Chairman at every General Meeting of the Company. If neither the Chairman nor the Vice Chairman are present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the Meeting or if neither the Chairman nor the Vice Chairman is willing to act as Chairman of the meeting, the Directors present shall select one of their number to be Chairman; and if no Director be present or is willing to take the chair the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the Meeting.
60. 1. The Chairman may, with the consent of any Meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the Meeting), adjourn the Meeting from time to time and from place to place (and from such Electronic Facility to such other Electronic Facility); but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned Meeting other than the business left unfinished at the Meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a Meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more, not less than ten (10) clear days' notice in writing of the adjourned Meeting shall be given specifying the day, the place and the time of the Meeting (including the means of Electronic Facility, if applicable) as in the case of an original Meeting, but it shall not be necessary to specify in such notice the nature of the business to be transacted at the adjourned Meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment.
2. If during any General Meeting it appears to the Chairman that the facilities at the physical place or an Electronic Facility, in the case of a General Meeting being conducted partly by means of an Electronic Facility, have become inadequate or are not sufficient to allow the Meeting to be conducted substantially in accordance with the provisions set out in the notice of meeting, then the Chairman shall adjourn the Meeting.
61. 1. Subject to Article 61(3), a resolution put to the vote at any General Meeting held partly by means of an Electronic Facility shall be decided on a poll, which poll votes may be cast by such electronic means as the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion in accordance with Article 55A deems appropriate for the purposes of the Meeting. Any such poll shall be deemed to have been validly demanded at the time fixed for the holding of the Meeting to which it relates.
2. Subject to Article 61(3), at any General Meeting held wholly at a physical place, a resolution put to the vote of the Meeting shall be decided on a show of hands.
 3. A resolution shall be decided by means of a poll if it is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
 - a. by the Chairman; or
 - b. by at least five (5) Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote; or
 - c. by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the Meeting; or
 - d. by a Member or Members holding shares in the Company conferring a right to vote at the Meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total sum paid up on all shares conferring that right.
 4. Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution:

PROVIDED that where a resolution requires a particular majority in value, the resolution shall not be deemed to have been carried on a show of hands by the required majority unless there be present at that Meeting, whether in person or by proxy, a number of Members holding in the aggregate the required majority as aforesaid. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

62. A poll demanded on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the Meeting directs, and any other business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of a poll.
63. Except as provided in Article 65, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or ticket) as the Chairman of the Meeting directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Meeting at which the poll was demanded.
64. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the Meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
65. A poll demanded on any question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time (not being more than thirty days after the date of the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the poll is demanded) and place as the Chairman may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

Right To Ask Questions

66. 1. Every Shareholder shall have the right to ask questions which are pertinent and related to items on the agenda of a General Meeting and to have such questions answered by the Directors or such person as the Directors may delegate for that purpose subject to any reasonable measures that the Company may take to ensure the identification of the Shareholder. The said right shall also be enjoyed by a proxy holder appointed by the Shareholder.
 2. The Company may provide one overall answer to questions having the same content.
 3. An answer to a question is not required where:
 - a. to give an answer would interfere unduly with the preparation for the Meeting, involve the disclosure of confidential information or cause prejudice to the business interests of the Company;
 - b. the answer has already been given on the Company's website in the form of an answer to a question;
 - c. it is not in the interests of good order of the Meeting that the question be answered; or
 - d. the Company is unable to provide an immediate reply, provided that such reply is subsequently posted on the website of the Company.

67. Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, on a show of hands every Member present in person shall have one vote, and on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.
68. No Member shall be entitled, in respect of any share in the capital of the Company held by him, to be present or to vote on any question, either in person or by proxy, at any General Meeting, or upon any poll, or to be reckoned in a quorum, or to exercise any other right or privilege conferred by Membership in relation to Meetings of the Company if any call or other sum presently payable by him to the Company in respect of such share remains unpaid.
69. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the Meeting or adjourned Meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such Meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman of the Meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

70. On a poll, votes may be given personally or by proxy and a Member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

71. Any Member entitled to attend and vote at a Meeting of the Company or at a meeting of any class of Members of the Company shall be entitled to appoint another person, whether a Member or not, as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him, and a proxy so appointed shall have the same right as the Member to speak and ask questions at the Meeting and to demand a poll. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and given by the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a person other than a natural person, given by an officer or attorney duly authorised. The signature on such instrument need not be witnessed. A Member holding shares for and on behalf of third parties is entitled to grant a proxy to each of his clients or to any third party designated by a client. Such Member shall be entitled to cast votes attaching to some of the shares differently from the others. Proxy forms shall be designed by the Company to allow such split voting.

72. An instrument of proxy shall be in such form as would allow the shareholder appointing a proxy to indicate how he would like his proxy to vote in relation to each resolution.

73. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company. Except in the case contemplated in Article 71.2, a Member may not appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. Deposit of an instrument of proxy shall not preclude a Member from revoking the proxy and attending and voting in person at the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

76. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
77. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or interdiction of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, interdiction, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the Office or such other place (if any) as is specified for depositing the instrument of proxy an hour at least before the commencement of the Meeting or adjourned Meeting or the holding of a poll subsequently thereto at which such vote is given.
